

EASTERN ACADEMY of MANAGEMENT

LEARN AND SHARE

APRIL 5TH, 2024

2:30 PM TO 4:00 PM (EDT/EST)

Join us for a discussion with leadership from the top Management pedagogy journals - including the Academy of Management Learning and Education, Journal of Management Education, and Management Teaching Review!

This interactive Learn and Share is designed as a 'Meet the Leadership' informational opportunity, a way for these leaders to share how these journals can be used to inform quality teaching, and finally, it can serve as a development opportunity for scholarly work within the management education/innovative teaching domain. These panelists will share insights on authoring for their affiliated management education publications, discuss issues related to evidence of student learning and educational impact, and provide general feedback for those who wish to become scholars in the management education domain.
